

COLLECTIVE ARTISTES

There are some journeys that make us who we were always meant to be.

ZHE: [noun] undefined

a new play
created by Chuck Mike, Antonia Kemi Coker and Tonderai Munyevu

COLLECTIVE
ARTISTES

"Timely, courageous, imaginative, lovely narrative story- telling."

Colin Prescod, Institute of Race Relations

"an important piece of drama, with stunning performances from both lead actors"

The Voice (On "The Meeting")

ZHE: [noun] undefined

From childhood to adulthood and across continents, this poignant and honest piece of theatre follows the lives of two British Africans living at the crossroads of culture, nationality, gender and sexuality. Humorous yet haunting, this story is told by the people whose lives are healed and celebrated through the experience.

Preview Tour

23rd Feb. 7.30pm	Canada Water Culture Space
24th Feb. 1.30 & 7.30pm	21 Surrey Quays Road London, SE16 7AR	thealbany.org.uk	020 8692 4446

25th Feb. 7.45pm	New Wolsey Studio St. George's Street Ipswich, IP1 3NF	wolseytheatre.co.uk	01473 295 900
------------------	--	---------------------	---------------

1st & 2nd March 7.30pm	Tara Theatre 356 Garratt Lane London, SW18 4ES	tara-arts.com	020 8333 4457
---------------------------	--	---------------	---------------

6th March 7pm	Workshop Theatre University of Leeds Leeds, LS2 9JT	stage.leeds.ac.uk	0113 343 8730
---------------	---	-------------------	---------------

Join Collective Artistes for Post-Play Discussions After Each Performance

Supported by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Supported by

The co-operative membership
Community Fund

collectiveartistes.co.uk
0207 607 5485